Reminder

The Wesley 100 men's group will be selling the chicken pies today! They will be in the dining hall from 9:00 am until 11:15 am and then in the Asbury Room from 11:15 am until approximately 1:00 pm. If possible, please try to pick up your chicken pie this today. We do not want to take up any room in the church freezer during the Christmas season. Our church chief Tammy Magee, can help with any orders on Monday that were not picked up on Sunday.

The congregation is invited, and encouraged to take a moment and walk through the new Historical Museum. Two beautiful stained glass windows have been recently added. All of the stained glass on display in the museum was preserved by the Edgar Snider family after the Main Street church was torn down in 1961. The windows contain all original glass from 1914. The glass was presented to the church by Vicki Snider Shipman. Jim Holcomb coordinated the new windows construction with Ralph Mills and Pittsburgh Stained Glass Studios in Pittsburgh. We are truly blessed to have so many items from our past on display and the new windows just adds "final touch".

Christmas Eve Offering

This Christmas Eve, we invite you to join Wesley Memorial in continuing our tradition of generosity and community outreach. This year, our offering will focus on hurricane relief efforts for our neighbors in the Western North Carolina mountains.

Our Missions Team has been actively gathering information and identifying the best ways to support these communities as they face the long road to recovery. While immediate needs have been addressed through organizations such as Samaritan's Purse, UMCOR, and Weaverville United Methodist Church, the rebuilding process presents significant challenges. Many families and churches in this region have experienced devastating losses, and we are committed to walking alongside them as they rebuild their lives and livelihoods.

The funds collected will be directed to long-term relief efforts, including potential partnerships with local Methodist churches or organizations deeply connected to the impacted communities. Your generosity will help provide hope, resources, and encouragement to those navigating this difficult journey.

Thank you for your compassion and for being the hands and feet of Christ during this season of giving. Together, we can make a lasting difference.
